

CATARRH

A SPECIFIC BLOOD IMPURITY

Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease, one which no amount of local treatment will ever permanently cure. The beneficial effects of washes, sprays, inhalations, etc., are only temporary, and when left off the old condition returns, because the blood is infected with catarrhal matter and impurities. This impure condition of the circulation irritates and inflames the delicate mucous membranes and tissues and produces the well known symptoms of ringing noises in the head and ears, mucus in the throat, headaches, watery eyes, partial deafness, sore throat, general impairment of health, etc. This condition will remain, growing worse as long as the catarrhal matter is allowed to remain in the blood. Being a specific blood impurity, there is only one way to cure Catarrh, and that is to purify the blood. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose. It attacks the disease at its head—in the circulation—and by thoroughly renovating the blood and cleansing it of all impure matter, makes a permanent and lasting cure of the disease. For forty years S. S. S. has been recognized as the best blood purifier, and the thousands of cases of Catarrh it has cured is proof that it is the very medicine needed by those who suffer with this trouble. ## MEMBERS OF DEFEATED TEAM, IN TEARS, LEAVE FIELD IN AUTOS

COACH OLSON OF SALT LAKE.

At the conclusion of the game Coach "Tillie" Olson of Salt Lake said, with a catch in his voice:
"It means work for us from now on. It was a fine game, and the best team won."

COACH BROWN OF OGDEN.

Coach Brown of Ogden high said:
"We won on our merits, and the boys deserve all of the credit for the magnificent game they put up. I was never in doubt for a moment, though at times the victory seemed to be in the balance."

Ogden High "brought back the bacon" by a score of 10 to 0 after one of the most sensational as well as one of the hardest fought football battles among the secondary schools of the state for years. Moran's exceptional brilliancy throughout the game Saturday afternoon, in which the clever little quarter back was supported at all times by his teammates, will undoubtedly win for him a place on the state eleven.
Fifteen hundred football fans had gathered to witness the game of the season on Cummings field at Salt Lake Saturday afternoon. Jack Tobin of Chicago was chosen as referee. Lieut. Gary of West Point was umpire; B. Baum of Indiana as field judge, and H. Hedges of Salt Lake as head linesman.

The Lineup.

The lineup was as follows:

Salt Lake High lined up for the kickoff and Ogden chose to defend the south goal. The weather was perfect, and 1,500 spectators cheered the teams on to an echo as they took their places. The referee signaled to the band that had been playing and the music ceased. A moment later the ball was in the air, and Salt Lake High was speeding down the field.

For the first few moments after Ogden had caught the ball it looked as if Ogden was going to have things her own way until, due to an unfortunate fumble in catching a forward pass, Salt Lake got the ball and began a determined advance on Ogden's side. But Ogden suddenly developed a stonewall defense, and Salt Lake was forced to try for a place kick, which was made amid a roar from the Salt Lake stand.

Ogden 3, Salt Lake 0.
With the score 3 to 0, Ogden kicked off and Allen was down in his tracks. Then Salt Lake developed the stonewall and the ball passed back to them again. Immediately afterwards the Salt Lake team began to advance the pignis, her men running an almost perfect interference. Ogden braced again and Sutherland was tackled behind the line for a loss, after which Salt Lake tried for a forward pass and lost the leather. But Ogden was slow in getting in action and again the ball went to Salt Lake. Upon the first down the home boys fumbled and Ogden secured the ball.

Then came the sensation, when Moran, ducking through Salt Lake's line, ran 60 yards before tackled. Ogden suddenly awoke and tore out 10 yards more through tackle.
"Mickey" Boyle went through center, looping 15 yards for a touchdown. The Ogden boys failed to kick goal and the score stood 5 to 3 in favor of Ogden.

Salt Lake Gets Penalized.
Salt Lake kicked off and was penalized 5 yards, after which the Salt Lake boys held Ogden for down and recovered the leather again. The score of 5 to 3 seemed to worry the home team, and they tried another forward pass. Somehow Moran got in the way of the pignis. Then came the stirring spectacle. Moran leaped up in the air and after embracing the ball ran, ducked, sidestepped and wriggled through 80 yards of the field, which seemed to be alive with Salt Lake players, until he had carried the ball under their goal posts. The Ogden crowd went mad. Moran stubbed his toe when he attempted to kick goal and the score stood 10 to 3 in favor of Ogden.

Moran and Evans Busy.
Salt Lake kicked off and Moran returned the ball for 20 yards before he was tackled. Then "Stuffy" Evans plunged through for 8 yards more, after which Salt Lake braced up again and got the ball on downs. But Ogden was in the way of advancing, and Salt Lake finally kicked the ball behind the goal, after which it was brought back 25 yards and the scrimmage started. From that time on until the end of the first quarter it became a game of Ogden advancing the ball, until Salt Lake would become desperate and hold for downs, only to receive the ball and kick it out of danger. The quarter ended with the ball advancing toward Salt Lake's goal and in possession of Ogden.

Stone Stops Sutherland.
During the second quarter the ball was kicked from one end of the field to the other by each team until Sutherland finally caught it and ran down the field for 40 yards, only to be lovingly folded to the breast of Captain Stone. Salt Lake's fighting blood was thoroughly aroused and they appeared to realize that, if theretofore they had to go out of the game for a practice game, the practice they had received was not of the right sort. Anyway, they began to fight with the desperation born of a terrible fear for the championship, and finally succeeded in carrying the ball over Ogden's line for a touchdown. They then kicked goal and the score stood 10 to 2 in favor of Ogden.

Only One "BROMO QUININE," that is Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 2 Days

den's line for a touchdown. They then kicked goal and the score stood 10 to 2 in favor of the visitors.
Ogden Carries Ball Over Field.
But that was the last point made in the game, and from there on it became a game in which the Ogden boys would secure the ball, advance it by straight football for about 40 yards, only to lose it at last by failing to make the gains.
Then Salt Lake, rather than take any chances, kicked the leather into Ogden's territory and the insistent advance for Salt Lake's goal would again begin. And again the ball would be kicked out of danger. Ogden finally started the same tactics and the ball was booted from one end of the field to the other with a regularity that resembled a shuttlecock.

Fall at Place Kicks.

In a last desperate series of tries to overcome the Ogden score Salt Lake during the last quarter made various attempts to win by place kicks. Time after time Salt Lake's line was bowled over as Walter Smyth, the formidable center for Ogden, came charging through the opposing line, like a warhorse in action. And one after time, his arm flying like flails, and backed by his teammates, the place kick was broken up.

Sutherland's Brilliant Work.
Sutherland once used a particularly brilliant piece of head work. Ogden had kicked the ball out of danger and Sutherland was waiting to catch it. He stood perfectly still watching the Ogden man tearing toward him, and at the same time shifting his eyes to the descending ball. As the Ogden man neared him, Sutherland suddenly signaled for a fair catch. But the Ogden player was too close and running with too much speed to stop. He tackled Sutherland and Ogden was penalized for 15 yards, which decision was fair under this year's rules.

Penalty Helps Salt Lake.
Salt Lake, by the aid of the penalty, had neared Ogden's goal, but instead of trying for the place kick attempted to advance the ball. Then Ogden went after Sutherland, who was carrying the ball, and ran him so near the side line that he was unable to make the kick when he tried it. The ball was again advanced toward Salt Lake's goal by the Ogden boys, who now were working like Trojans, and seemed to be in the better condition physically. The game ended with the ball in the center of the field.

Salt Lake Takes Advantage of "Time Out."
After the opening of the third quarter Salt Lake continually took advantage of the "time out" rule and was much slower in putting the ball in play than the Ogden team, which seemed to be in the best of condition. Each member of the Ogden team did splendid work, which resulted in their "bringing home the bacon," and jumping into first place for the championship honors.

Did Not Realize Their Defeat.
When the fatal signal blew, which brought the spectacular game to a close, the Salt Lake team did not seem to realize for a moment that they had been beaten. The cheering of the Salt Lake fans was conspicuous by its absence, but the Ogden fans crowded the field and went almost wild with enthusiasm.

Meet Here on Thanksgiving Day.
The game in Ogden on Thanksgiving day between the two teams is being looked forward to with the keenest interest. The betting odds are in favor of Ogden. Considerable money changed hands at the game between the sporting fraternity.

TRAVELING MAN SUES FOR WAGES

C. J. Campbell of Pocatello, Idaho, has commenced suit in the Second district court against the Pingree Brothers company to recover $2,000 claimed to be for services as a traveling salesman from December 1, 1909, to December 31, 1909.
It is said in the complaint that Campbell sold shoes, hats and rubber goods on a commission of from 6 to 10 per cent, and that during the time of service he sold for the company $255,000 worth of goods, but that the commission for the work has not all been paid. The plaintiff claims that there is yet a balance of $2,000 due.
The complaint states that the contract for the services was entered into by the parties to the action November 1, 1908.

GEORGE MEAD LANDS BIG JOB

Saturday evening's Salt Lake Telegram contained a large cut of George A. Mead, the Ogden man who has been assigned to an umpire's berth in the Central Association for next season. In commenting on the announcement of Mr. Mead's good fortune, the Telegram says:
"The ambitions of George A. Mead of Ogden, have been realized and next season will see him doing a 'Ladies and Gentlemen' the Batteries' stunt in the Central Baseball association. The well known Utah player has been placed on the umpire staff of President M. E. Justice of that league, and at a good salary. Realizing that he had about outlived his usefulness as a ball player, Mead has repeatedly stated that he would like to try his hand at umpiring in a league where the 'ump' is given some protection by the president. This season, 'Dad' Clarke, the former Ogden first-sacker, recommended him to President Justice with the result that the latter engaged Mead at once."
Mead first came to Utah as a pitcher on Charles Reilly's 1905 Salt Lake team. Later he pitched for Salt Lake, Park City and Ogden teams, and also in Idaho. He has been valuable experience in the Northwestern leagues, California leagues and also in this state and knows the game from A to Z. He showed all the earmarks of a splendid umpire in the Utah State league during the past season and should make good. He is one umpire who will not argue with the players and who gives "on the spot" decisions as he sees them. His many friends in Utah will wish him success."

COMPARES LIFE TO FOOTBALL GAME

"If St. Paul had been a High School student in Ogden, he would been on the football team, or if he was too stoop shouldered and hook-nosed as men say, and could not get on the team he would surely been a rooter for Ogden, for no man ever gloried more in athletics than he did, so no wonder he said as he looked out on life, I press for the goal. For life after all is but a great football game, with every man thing in a man's life on the opposing team, and the Devil as Captain." Said Mr. Fisher last night of the First Methodist Church as he opened his sermon on football and life.
"Continuing he said, 'the football field is only 330 feet in length, but the gridiron of life stretches from cradle to grave, and when you start the game, it is a question whether you can see the goal. The football game must close in an hour, but only death calls time on the game of life. Only a hand full go into the football game, but every last one of us whether we will or not have to play the larger game on the 'gridiron of life.'"
The biggest rule in the game is to get ready for it, diet, diet, diet, says the football coach, and when a fellow gets into the game if he hasn't cut-out of his life everything that weakens him, alas for him when the rush is on. God calls on us, to give up the petty, selfish, manhood weakening sins, and pleasures not for the sake of making our lives hard, but for the sake of hardening our moral muscle for the crucial hour when the game is on and the goal is at stake.
When the game is on, the man has got to play fair, God pity the men to try to fight sin in their lives without coming into the open and standing up like men. There are times for you to tackle and with quick brain to meet the swift side plays of the enemy, but in the football of life you cannot win the game alone but with an eye on the captain and an ear ready for signals you must "get together," and play strong mass plays if you would win. In Ogden, in Utah in America, we need the strongest kind of team work of all good men against the force of the graft and sin, and any man to win in his own life must summon to his help every force he has got in the world. Every force God has got in splendid team work to make the goal."

In closing Mr. Fisher pictured life as a great game and calling upon men to make the rush he bade them to break the line of sin, and at the very end bend every energy in a great run and make the goal of moral triumph and Christian victory in the dark of death, faith and the plaudits of all good folks in heaven and on earth resound in their ears.

BURGLAR SHEEDY MAKES A SECOND ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE
Weathersfield, Conn., Oct. 31—Timothy Sheedy, the burglar who escaped the county jail in Hartford to be captured in the town of Troy, N. Y. several months later and brought to the state's prison here to serve a thirty-year sentence, is again in the limelight. It was learned today that he attempted suicide in his cell yesterday by hanging.
Sheedy smuggled a piece of cord into his cell from his pocket where he worked and in the absence of his guard, who has orders to look into his cell every eight minutes, tied one end of the cord around his neck and the other to a hook in the wall. Sheedy was unconscious when discovered, but was resuscitated. This is the second attempt Sheedy has made to end his life, the first being in Troy shortly after his recapture.

WESTERN BOTTLING CO.

Burglar Insurance

In these times of a "wave of crime" terrorizing the city, have you considered the efficacy of an ELECTRIC PORCH LIGHT in protecting yourself, your wife and your family from thugs and thieves?

In the first place, the criminal class work mostly by night, and naturally avoid well lighted houses, and especially well lighted porches.

In the second place, should one of them come to the door in spite of such precautions, the porch light enables you to see who your visitor is before opening the door to him—think what a comfort and reassurance this is to the women-folk.

Or again, the whole family can go out and leave the house deserted—a light on the porch will afford as much protection as a patrolman.

Burglar Insurance is simply one of the many indispensable conveniences of electric light. There are others.
